

Bible Reading for the Week of October 25, 2026

Monday, October 26 – Luke 22:1-23

Just before Jesus goes to the cross, he institutes the Lord's Supper for his disciples (and the church). Oftentimes in church history, this meal has been referred to as a means of grace? How does the Lord's Supper help us in our Christian life? Pray that the Lord would enable you to make use of his means of grace.

Tuesday, October 27 – Luke 22:24-46

In verses 39-46, Luke records Jesus's prayer before he goes to the cross. What was it about the upcoming events in the life of Jesus that caused such great distress? How might this fact of Christ's undergoing the full weight of the wrath of God cause you to give thanks to the Lord today?

Wednesday, October 28 – Luke 22:47-70

How does this section of Luke's Gospel highlight the humiliation of Jesus? Spend time today meditating on the great cost it took for Jesus to come and pay for your sins.

Thursday, October 29 – 1 John 3:1-4

What does John say has resulted from the love of God the Father? How are we made partakers of the grace of adoption? Thank the Lord for bringing you into union with Christ, in whom you have received the status of a son of God.

Friday, October 30 – 1 John 4:7-11

Where is the ultimate expression of the love of God, according to the apostle John? How ought the love of God to manifest itself in our lives as believers? Take time today to ask that the Spirit would cause you to grow in your love for the body of Christ.

Saturday, October 31 – 1 John 4:12-21

Take time today to meditate on verse 19. Consider some of the ways that Scripture describes God's love for his people? How might this love influence our love? Praise the Lord for his marvelous love toward you.
