Bible Reading for the Week of November 22, 2026

Monday, November 23 – John 8:48-59

What does Jesus mean in verse 51 when he says, "if anyone keeps my word, he will never see death"? In what sense do believers never experience death? What about Christ's work on the cross allows believers to never experience death? How does that truth bolster your faith in Christ? Praise the Lord today for the death and resurrection of Christ for you.

Tuesday, November 24 –John 8:48-59

Consider what Jesus tells the Pharisees in verse 56. How is this possible? How does this change and shape the way in which we read and understand the Old Testament Scriptures? What is similar and what is different about the way believers before Christ and after Christ viewed and believed in him? Give thanks to the Lord today for giving you the spiritual eyes to see who Jesus truly is.

Wednesday, November 25 – John 8:48-59

How does verse 58 relate to Jesus' other 'I am' sayings in John's Gospel? What Old Testament passage might Jesus be appealing to? Be sure to give thanks to God for the wonders of his word.

Thursday, November 26 – Psalm 123

Considering verse 1, why might the truth of God's enthronement on high be a reason for Christians to turn to him in time of need? Where do you instinctually turn when you go through difficulties of life? Take time today to thank the Lord for the preservation he provides you on your pilgrimage to Zion.

Friday, November 27 – Psalm 123

What images are used by the Psalmist to convey the believer's looking to God? Why might these images be appropriate ones for Christians to consider? As you pray today, ensure that you commit time to praising the Lord, as well as confessing your sins before the Lord.

Saturday, November 28 – Psalm 123

How does the church's regular worship serve as a haven in the midst of the distress that comes with traveling to Mt. Zion? How have you found Lord's Day worship in the morning and evening to be a help to you in the past? As you prepare to worship the Lord tomorrow with his people, be sure to pray for the Spirit's work in your heart.
